

Giving Through Relationships

January 4, 2023

During its annual Ugly Sweater Golf Outing and Toy Drive, Honeybrook Golf Club and its Golf Pro, Duane Lent collected numerous toys and wanted to make certain that they went to local charities in need.

Claudia Gangemi, Assistant Junior Golf Coordinator at Honeybrook Golf Club presents the toys collected to Milena Lanz, the Executive Director of MCHC.

A trunkload of toys was delivered to Maternal and Child Health Consortium in West Chester to help bring holiday cheer to families.

Claudia Gangemi, Assistant Junior Golf Coordinator at Honeybrook Golf Club, and wife of Malvern Bank's CFO delivered the toys to Maternal and Child Health Consortium in West Chester. Claudia presented the toys to Milena Lanz, the Executive Director. MCHC was a recipient of a 2022 Financial Grant through The Malvern Federal Charitable Foundation, the charitable arm of Malvern Bank.

MCHC's mission is to advocate for and empower prenatal and parenting families to achieve healthy beginnings and a bright future through a caring culture of service. Their vision is to create a world where every family has access to health care, education, and opportunity for success.

The relationships that were built through Malvern bank, helped to bring a bit of joy and happiness to our community. Thank you to Claudia Gangemi and to Milena Lanz for all that they do to spread kindness and support for those in need.

About Malvern Bank, National Association

Malvern Bank, National Association, the wholly owned subsidiary of Malvern Bancorp, Inc. (NASDAQ:MLVF), was originally organized in 1887 as a federally-chartered savings bank.
