

Communications Coordinator:
Ronald Morales
(610) 695-3646

Malvern Federal Charitable Foundation Awards Grants to Local Charitable Nonprofit Organizations

PAOLI, PA., October 29, 2018 –Malvern Federal Charitable Foundation is pleased to announce the award of eleven grants to charitable, nonprofit organizations totaling $105,000 in its local markets. The organizations receiving grants were:

- The Timothy School in Berwyn is the state’s oldest non-profit school devoted exclusively to the educational needs of autistic children. The school works to develop an understanding of autism that recognizes the strengths and uniqueness of autistic children and the specialized methods needed to expand their educational opportunities.
- Vantage Health System organized in 1957 provides opportunities for wellness through integrated mental and physical healthcare, support services and affordable housing.
- Woodlynde School in Strafford PA, serves students with diverse learning styles and empowers them to become strategic learners and self-advocates in an environment that provides both challenge and support.
- Curing Kids Cancer, founded in 2005 by Grainne Owen, has raises funds to support pediatric cancer research. Curing Kids Cancer is one of a very few foundations that fund pediatric cancer research exclusively.
- FLITE, Foundation for Learning in Tredyffrin/Easttown, funds programs that provide academic tools and support for Tredyffrin/Easttown students, especially those who face barriers to their educational success, have the academic tools, opportunities and support they need to succeed in school.
- Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge promotes the principles of our free society and encourages all Americans to embrace their rights and responsibilities and contribute to society’s common good.
- Home of the Sparrow in Exton, provides housing and supportive services to homeless and low-income women and their children.
- Maternal & Child Health Consortium, founded in 1991, focuses on improving maternal and child health through the collaborative efforts of individuals, providers and policy makers.
- Peter’s Place is a center for grieving children and families. The mission of Peter’s Place is to provide safe and supportive environments for grieving children and families to act as a community resource to foster understanding the effects of death and grief.
- Center for Family Services of Palm Beach County (CFS) embraces the philosophy that families should be the center of the community and in the center of every family should be a healthy connection. CFS’s vision is promoting a healthy community by strengthening the family structure.

- Quantum House is a caring and supportive home that lessens the burden for families whose children are receiving treatment in Palm Beach County for a serious medical condition.

“Each year, our Foundation looks to make an impact in our community by selecting organizations who provide vital services in the markets we serve,” said Anthony C. Weagley, President and CEO of Malvern Bank, National Association. “Every dollar provided is intended to assist these Organizations in fulfilling their missions of helping our neighbors. Since its founding in 2008, the Foundation has awarded grants totaling more than $600,000 to organizations that improve the quality of life in the region.”

About Malvern Federal Charitable Foundation

Malvern Federal Charitable Foundation’s purpose is to promote charitable and educational activities within the markets which Malvern Bank has offices supporting community organizations and other charitable causes that contribute to the quality of life in the Local Community.

About Malvern Bank, National Association

Malvern Bancorp, Inc. is the holding company for Malvern Bank, National Association, a national bank that was originally organized in 1887 as a federally-chartered savings bank. Malvern Bank, National Association now serves as one of the oldest banks headquartered on the Philadelphia Main Line. For more than a century, Malvern Bank has been committed to helping people build prosperous communities as a trusted financial partner, forging lasting relationships through teamwork, respect and integrity.

Malvern Bank conducts business from its headquarters in Paoli, Pennsylvania, a suburb of Philadelphia and through its eight other banking locations in Chester, Delaware and Bucks counties, Pennsylvania and Morristown, New Jersey, its New Jersey regional headquarters. The Bank also operates representative offices in Palm Beach, Florida and Montchanin, Delaware. Its primary market niche is providing personalized service to its client base.

Malvern Bank, through its Private Banking division and strategic partnership with Bell Rock Capital in Rehoboth Beach, Delaware, provides personalized wealth management and advisory services to high net worth individuals and families. Those services include banking, liquidity management, investment services, 401(k) accounts and planning, custody, tailored lending, wealth planning, trust and fiduciary services, family wealth advisory services and philanthropic advisory services. The Bank offers insurance services through Malvern Insurance Associates, LLC, which provides clients a rich array of financial services, including commercial and personal insurance and commercial and personal lending.