

Malvern Bank Hosts Grand Re-Opening of the Coventry Branch April 6, 2019

Malvern Bank, National Association hosted a Grand Re-Opening community event at its newly renovated Coventry Financial Center & Private Client Office located at 1000 Ridge Road in Pottstown on April 6, 2019.

There was an egg hunt and crafts for children 2-10 years old, as well as refreshments and giveaways.

The renovation project included interior improvements such as new flooring, furniture and aesthetic upgrades.

Anthony C. Weagley, President and CEO of Malvern Bank, National Association said, “We have a long-standing relationship within the community and hope to continue being a true community bank by giving back.”

The bank’s key executive appointment in Coventry is Georgette Krick, Senior Vice President and Private Client Officer. Krick is responsible for managing, developing and expanding the bank’s Private Client and Retail Banking relationships. She has more than 35 years of banking experience. “I am here to support the community each day,” said Krick. “I look forward to becoming more acquainted, and building relationships, with those that I have already had the pleasure to meet. I also embrace the opportunity to meet more of the residents and business owners of this great area. It all starts with a conversation, which I always welcome.”

