

The 45th Annual Chester County High School Art Exhibition

April 23, 2019

Malvern Bank, NA was pleased to sponsor the Chester County Intermediate Unit's (CCIU) 45th Annual Chester County High School Art Exhibition, which ran from April 11th through April 27th at the Chester County Art Association in West Chester. Three hundred and sixty-four students representing 21 Chester County schools exhibited their work in the areas of water colors, oils, charcoal, sculpture, ceramics and photography, to name a few. In addition to awards presented by the CCIU and the Art Association, The Honorable Chrissy Houlahan, U.S. House of Representatives, presented awards to students in her congressional district.
