"Never doubt that a small group of thoughtful, committed citizens can change the world," Margaret Mead once said. "Indeed, it's the only thing that ever has."

Malvern Bank is an advocate of nonprofit organizations focusing on education throughout the communities it serves. It knows that schools and nonprofits are good neighbors and partners who are critical to the socio-economic development of the communities they serve.

The bank has partnered with Front Porch Trust to grow awareness of its local scholarship program. Malvern will be accepting donations and fundraising on behalf of Front Porch Trust at all of its locations from now through June 30.

Would you like to have the above painting hanging in your home and support a good cause at the same time? Sales of the prints support the Front Porch Trust, which was established in 2005 to provide scholarships to exceptional student volunteers.

The Front Porch Trust Scholarship Fund recognizes and rewards students from the Great Valley and Tredyffrin-Easttown school districts who are making a difference in the community due to their volunteer efforts and/or school and civic involvement.

Through this scholarship program, the trust seeks to encourage young people to become more invested and involved in their local and global community, and to recognize that they truly can make a difference.
