Malvern Bank, National Association has begun donating revenue from monthly ATM fees to local nonprofits on a quarterly basis.

Based upon last year's fourth-quarter ATM revenues, the bank made its first donations totaling $1,220 to the following nonprofits:

- The Timothy School in Berwyn received $579 from the Berwyn branch office's ATM receipts.
- Royer-Greaves School for the Blind in Paoli received $200 from the Paoli branch office's ATM receipts.
- A Path to Hope in Downingtown received $219 from the Lionville branch office's ATM receipts.
- Malvern Arts in Malvern received $222 from the Malvern branch office's ATM receipts.

"We at Malvern Bank embrace our role as a contributing member of our communities and try to find unique ways to give back to our communities' business, cultural, social, and philanthropic endeavors," said Anthony C. Weagley, Malvern Bank's President and CEO. "The four organizations to which we've donated are vital parts of their communities. Likewise, our goal is to play an important role in the life of every community we serve, helping them to grow and prosper."
