Marjorie the Berwyn Bovine, an ambassador for the community's small businesses, has been spotted along the Lancaster Avenue corridor throughout the summer. She has stopped at a number of businesses, including Malvern Bank, National Association, to remind everyone of the importance of shopping and eating locally.

Marjorie was recently seen at the bank's Berwyn branch, getting some moooolah to last her for the week.

"Marjorie has made it up and down Lancaster Avenue, and we are so happy to have the opportunity for her visit here," said Yvonne Wooley, Vice President and Berwyn Financial Center Manager. "We are hoping we get a herd of customers to mooove over to Malvern!"

Since its founding in 1887, Malvern Bank has been fulfilling the financial needs of the people and businesses of the communities it serves, while being actively involved in those communities. Malvern Bank is proud to be a member of the Berwyn-Devon Business Association and supports its work and commitment to the local business community. Start the conversation today!
